From the Desk of Dr. Earl H. Parrish

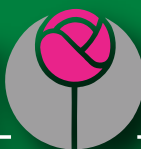

Recently we have begun to use a new line of breast implants for special cases. The new company is called Sientra.

The implants are all made with silicone gel of a thicker consistency than available with other manufacturers. They also are the only company in the USA with FDA approval of a shaped implant similar to the teardrop shaped implants available in the past. That shape was quite popular when it was available and I used it quite often. Since the implant moratorium that lasted 14 years and ended 4 years ago there have been no shaped implants like these available in the US.

These implants have a textured surface that is important to holding the implant in position. This gives us a new important tool to use in providing our patients with the latest available products and techniques.

We also have computer imaging available for patients considering breast implants to help them in their pre-operative decision making process. The Crisalix System for imaging is a great adjunct when patients are undecided on shape or size of implant. It adds 20-30 minutes to the length of the consultation but is definitely worthwhile in such cases.

We Asked our Staff... What do you enjoy most about the Holidays?

Dr. Parrish I most enjoy the celebration of Christmas and the joy of the Christmas message. Spending time with family and friends is really a treasure at this time of year when we have more hours indoors. This gives us a chance to slow down a little and appreciate all the many blessings in our lives. We are also given many opportunities to help those who are less fortunate or who have fallen on hard times. Finally, I love to ski (downhill and cross country) and this is a chance to start the ski season.

Stephanie My favorite thing during the holidays is decorating! And of course I love seeing friends and family!

Tawnya Making holiday dinners and visiting family. I also like the bustle of retail and looking at decorations.

Anne Everything! The smells, the music, the smiles, the cheer, the shopping, the cooking, all of it!

Debra Fudge! Lots of fudge!

Chelsey I love being with family and loved ones, cooking with my mom and sisters and listening to holiday music.

Susan The air of excitement and anticipation, spending time with family and friends, putting smiles on the faces of those that I love!

Diana I love the time with family and friends. Thanksgiving brings great food and great company, and the scents and decorations of Christmas make me happy!

Ashley I love the warmth and kindness that the holidays bring out in everyone. The holidays are filled with happiness, it's the loveliest time of the year!!

Patty What I love most about the holiday season is seeing the joy and excitement on my children's faces as the season unfolds. All the decorations, lights and presents light up their face which lights up my heart.

Our Latest Patient Testimonial

"Wow! If I had only known years ago what I know now. At the age of 62, I went to Dr. Parrish to inquire about a breast reduction. I had waited so many years, and endured so much self-deprecation, loss of confidence, shame, and even "hibernation" from social activities due to my body shape. I am not sure what made me finally go in for a consultation, but when I did, it was comfortable, comforting, and encouraging.

I decided to have the procedure, and it was absolutely life-changing. It was almost as if a hidden personality emerged that enabled me to feel good about myself, and as a consequence, have a lot more fun. The process was problem-free! Healing occurred easily, and my forays into the clothing stores became a much-anticipated adventure that I enjoyed rather than dreaded.

I was so excited with the results and how much happier I felt, I then explored a tummy tuck. Yes, many diets and regular exercise of four-five times a week were a part of my regime, but the tummy blob remained, no matter what I did.

So, back I went to Dr. Parrish. Again, another consult, good communication of what to expect, and really friendly care by the staff led me to have the procedure. What remarkable results! At my age now, 64, I feel womanly, sexy, happy, and better than when I was 40. I am meeting new people, and having more adventures. I was a successful career woman for years, but my personal image was so bad that there was no social life.

With the amazing changes in my body, due to Dr. Parrish as well as a continued regimen of exercise and healthy eating, I am enjoying some of the best times of my life. I even bought - and wore- a bathing suit this summer. It sure felt good!

My wish for all women who struggle with self-image body issues is to visit Dr. Parrish for a consultation. Hear from him what he can do for you. It will be one of the best things you can do for yourself."
